The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

2.12 How does IQAC Contribute/Monitor/Evaluate the Teaching & Learning processes:

- The Internal Quality Assurance Cell has been instrumental in carrying out the action plan chalked out at the beginning of the academic year.
- Teaching Learning process has monitored through regular meeting between the Head of the institutions and Head of the departments.
- IQAC conducts periodical meetings to analyze the progress of the various activities planned. The Internal Academic Audit was conducted. The Audit members visit the Departments to verify the various records related to Teaching and Learning.
- Performance appraisal of each faculty member is analyzed based on the academic result of the student.
- IQAC conducts Faculty Development Programmes to upgrade the quality of higher education and to augment the quality of teaching learning process.
- IQAC developed a few procedures for the effective implementation of the curriculum such as ‘‘syllabus schedule’’ and ‘‘evaluation tracker’’. Syllabus schedule facilitates the faculty to plan the classes and to complete the syllabus in a phased manner at an optimum speed. The evaluation tracker helps the faculty and HODs to track the coverage of the syllabus within the allotted time.
- Students’ Feedback is obtained from the students to monitor the teaching quality.
- Conducting announced test, Model exam, Seminar and PPT presentation as per benchmark defined by the academic council.
- Identifying slow learners and guiding them.
- Monitoring is done through staff appraisal and students’ feedback through Students Performance.
